Dear Henri:

My father's birthday is the 5th - although this is hardly cause for a celebration since he is only 86, and in our family this is not an achievement. Vesta and I think we should go down to Berea, returning on the 6th.

What I overlooked was that it is Barbara's birthday on the 7th. She is at the Northampton School for Girls. I did not know until yesterday that Vesta thought perhaps we ought to go up to cheer her in her desolation.

Please call Darien, Oliver 5-9846, collect, on the evening of the 6th if you can, or fairly early in the morning, say, around 9 o'clock on the 7th. I am sorry that the members of my family did not have sense enough not to get born on a day when we might have had a chance to see you.

As ever yours,
